It's not just about the color of our skin. It's about the color of our hearts. It's about the color of our dreams. It's about the color of our actions. It's about the color of our lives. It's about the color of our world.

It's not just about the color of our skin. It's about the color of our hearts. It's about the color of our dreams. It's about the color of our actions. It's about the color of our lives. It's about the color of our world.
